

Join us for a FREE community training on the Family Justice Center Model

Tuesday, September 30, 2014

8:30am – 11:30am / 1:00 – 4:00pm (select either AM or PM session)

Electric Power Board Community Room located in the main building at 10 West MLK Blvd in downtown Chattanooga

Parking is either on the street at meters or in the parking garage

What is a Family Justice Center (FJC)?

How can a FJC help victims and service providers?

Defining the Model

Onsite and Offsite Partners | Co-location & Collaboration

Client Centered Service

Best Practices for Collaboration

Transparency | Cross-training | Coordination

Governance Models

+Training presented by staff from the Knoxville FJC

REGISTRATION REQUIRED VIA EVENTBRITE: search for “Family Justice Center” attendees may also register via phone at the number below.

Three (3) contact hours of CEU credit available for professionals for a $15 fee via registration site. FOR MORE INFO OR ACCOMMODATIONS TO FULLY PARTICIPATE IN THIS EVENT PLEASE CALL: (423) 643-7823